GET MORE OUT OF LIFE

Adopt a Beagle

FROM PAWS 4 YOU RESCUE

Marisol

Sophie

Beagles have a medium-high energy level and need plenty of outdoor time like playing in the yard, visits to dog parks, and long walks to fulfill their desire to sniff. Intelligent and outgoing with a hint of stubbornness, they've got character, but are quite trainable and love to please. They bond with the entire household, making great family pets. Because Beagles were bred to hunt in a pack, they are extremely social, requiring a lot of interaction with other animals and people.

Paws 4 You Rescue can't get enough of these guys and always has a variety of ages, sizes, colors, and energy levels available for adoption. For more information on adopting, our weekly locations, and our organization, please visit:

PAWS4YOU
RESCUE

Dear Paws 4 You Rescue,
Adopting Chloe Von Beagle Bug from Paws 4 You was the best decision our family ever made. She is the perfect dog for our lifestyle. She'll explore from sun up to sun down on a week-long camping trip or sleep under the covers all day on a rainy weekend.

Sincerely,
Valerie & Tim
